MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

Senate Chamber,

• Austin, Texas, February 22, 1929.

Hon. W. S. Barron, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has passed

S. B. No. 476, A bill to be entitled "An Act making appropriations to pay miscellaneous claims against the State for the prison system of the State of Texas, and authorizing payment of said miscellaneous items on taking effect of this act; and declaring an emergency."

Respectfully,

MORRIS C. HANKINS,

Assistant Secretary of the Senate.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT
ON SENATE BILL NO. 74.

The Speaker laid before the House, for consideration at this time, the following report:

Austin, Texas, February 22, 1929.

Hon. Barry Miller, President of the Senate, and Hon. W. S. Barron, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sirs: We, your free conference committee on Senate bill No. 74, have had same under consideration and beg to report the following action thereon:

First. The Senate concedes to the House its amendment changing the time from ten days to three days.

Second. The House concedes to the Senate to eliminate the second amendment prescribing the age limit.

Third. The House concedes to the Senate and inserts the word "licensed" preceding the word "physician" in the third House amendment.

Fourth. Captions are amended accordingly.

HYER,
HORNSBY,
BECK,
HARDIN,
RUSSEK,

On the part of the Senate.

HOLDER,

HOUSE BILL NO. 72 ON THIRD READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its third reading and final passage, H. B. No. 72, A bill to be entitled

"An Act regulating the use of statements of facts on appeal from the county and district courts."

The bill was read third time.

Mr. Williams of Travis offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 72 by adding thereto another section, to be numbered Section 4, as follows:

"The fact that there is now no law making it optional with the parties to suits as to whether question and answer or narrative form of statement of facts may be used on appeal, creates an emergency and imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring that bills be read on three several days be, and the same is hereby, suspended and that this act take effect from and after its passage, and it is so enacted."

The amendment was adopted.

House bill No. 72 was then passed by the following vote:

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

Senate Chamber,
Austin, Texas, February 22, 1929.

Hon. W. S. Barron, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has passed the following bills:

S. B. No. 315, A bill to be entitled "An Act fixing the compensation for the Assistant Adjutant General at three thousand dollars annually, payable monthly; repealing all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 465, A bill to be entitled "An Act for the relief of railway corporations having charters granted or amended since the first day of January, 1892, and which have failed or are about to fail to construct their roads and branches, or any part thereof, within the time required by law, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 468, A bill to be entitled "An Act fixing, in counties having a population of more than 100,000 and less than 150,000 and containing a city of more than 75,000 population, the compensation of and providing for the appointment of assistant county attorneys, and prescribing their qualifications, and providing for the appointment of a stenographer and providing for their salaries and the manner of the payment of the same, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 335, A bill to be entitled "An Act to permit voting in any election by heads of State departments, United States Senators and Congressmen from Texas, and persons in the diplomatic and consular service of the United States temporarily absent, fixing the place of their residences, and providing for the procuring by such persons of poll tax or exemption receipts in person or in writing containing certain information and stating that the person owing such poll tax or claiming exemption is unable, on account of absence in official duties, to apply for the same in person, and for the deposit of such authority with the tax collector to be filed and preserved by him; providing for absentee voting by such persons under Article 2956, Title 5, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 404, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Chapter 402, Special Laws enacted by the Thirty-ninth Legislature at its First Called Session in 1926, same being a special road law for Limestone county, Texas, by adding thereto Section 4a, authorizing the commissioners court of Limestone county to issue bonds of said county for the purpose of funding or refunding indebtedness incurred for road and bridge purposes and to levy a tax in payment thereof, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 505, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Article 4799, Title 78, Chapter 6, of the Revised Statutes of 1925, by increasing the burial fund from one hundred dollars to five hundred dollars, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 508, A bill to be entitled "An Act fixing the compensation of district attorneys in districts of four or more counties, and prescribing how the same shall be paid, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 401, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Article 3353 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, so as to require persons to be bona fide residents of this State in order to be qualified to have letters testamentary or of administration granted to them, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 408, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Section 10, Article 4331, Chapter 1, Title 70, of the 1925 Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, providing that the Secretary of State shall distribute judicial reports to the Supreme Court Library and to State institutions of higher learning giving law and pre-law courses, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 454, A bill to be entitled "An Act authorizing the State Highway Department of the State of Texas to audit the fees collected by tax collectors for the registration of motor vehicles, tractors, trailers, semi-trailers, or other vehicles, or for the transfer thereof, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 520, A bill to be entitled "An Act regulating commercial colleges, requiring commercial colleges that may hereafter be organized in Texas to comply with their contracts with the students who matriculate with them for the purpose of taking commercial courses in accounting, stenography, telegraphy, typing, and other branches generally included in the curriculum of such colleges, etc., and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 549, A bill to be entitled "An Act creating a more efficient road system for Zapata county, Texas; providing that the county commissioners shall be road commissioners of their respective precincts; providing that such commissioners shall have charge of the road teams, tools, machinery and appliances of said county under the direction of the commissioners court, etc., and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 572, A bill to be entitled "An Act to authorize the Governor to deposit certain funds held by him as Trustee for the National Guard of Texas with the State Treasurer, and authorizing the expenditure of such fund by the Adjutant General and authorizing the issuance of warrants against said fund, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 440, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Section 1 of Chapter 218 of the General and Special Laws of the Regular Session of the Fortieth Legislature so as to permit blue uniforms in addition to dark grey to be worn by officers making arrests for violations of the laws of this State relating to the speed of motor vehicles, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 381, A bill to be entitled "An Act authorizing certain cities and counties to acquire and maintain and operate air ports, limiting the amounts of land which may be acquired or held for such purpose; providing for the necessary funds for such purposes; providing regulations for the operation, maintenance and support of such air ports; enacting all necessary provisions incidental to the general purpose of the act in providing for the acquisition, maintenance, and operation of said air ports, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 573, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Section 4, Chapter 61, Local and Special Laws of the State of Texas, passed at the First Called Session of the Thirty-seventh Legislature, defining the powers of the board of trustees of the Taft Independent School District and the manner in which such taxes as may be necessary for the maintenance of its schools, for the purchase of building sites, erection and repair of buildings, and for paying interest and providing a sinking fund on the bonds for which said district may be liable, shall be assessed and collected, so as to provide that the board of trustees of said district shall have the power to appoint an assessor and collector of taxes for said district and a board of equalization therefor."

Respectfully,

MORRIS C. HANKINS,

Assistant Secretary of the Senate.

HOUSE BILL NO. 509 ON SECOND
READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 509, A bill to be entitled "An Act authorizing county auditors in counties containing a population of 35,000 or more, and in which there may exist or which there may be created, any improvement, navigation, road or irrigation district, or any other territory district having for its purpose the expenditure of public funds for improvement purposes, or improvements of any kind, whether derived from the issuance of bonds or through any character of special assessment, to any exercised control over the finances of said district as provided in Chapter 2 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, 1925, amending Article 1667 of the Revised Civil Statutes, 1925."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Pope of Nueces offered certain amendments to the bill which were adopted.

(Mr. McGill in the chair.)

House bill No. 509 was then passed to engrossment.

(Speaker in the chair.)

SENATE BILL NO. 256 ON THIRD READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its third reading and final passage, S. B. No. 256, A bill to be entitled "An Act fixing the compensation for county tax assessors in counties containing a city with a population of not less than 35,000 and not more than 125,000, according to the last United States census, where the county assessor of taxes compiles and makes a transfer book or card index compiled from the real estate transfers recorded in the county clerk's office showing the names transferred to, last owner assessed to, volume and page, description of property, assessed valuation and the consideration of the transfer; keeps a building permit record or card index of all building permits issued showing name of owner, date of permit, description of the property on which building is located, description of the improvement, the permit valuation and the final valuation of the building inspector; keeps a record of the builders' liens recorded in the county clerk's office, and also keeps a card index file of all automobiles, busses and trucks, licensed and owned on January 1st of each year, showing owner of auto, the owner's address, State Highway license number, make and year model of auto, all of said information for the facilitation of the work in said assessor's office and for the more correctly assessing such classes of property and for the purpose of keeping a close check on same; the commissioners court shall allow said assessor who compiles and uses such records extra compensation, not exceeding $1200 annually, beginning with the fiscal year 1929, to be paid in twelve monthly payments, same to be retained by said assessor as ex-officio salary exclusive of the maximum salary allowed by law, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read third time.

Mr. Harrison offered the following amendments to the bill:

(1)

Amend Senate bill No. 256 by striking out all of Section 1a.

Signed—Harman, Harrison.

(2)

Amend Senate bill No. 256, Section 1, by inserting in line 3, between the figures "42,000," and the word "according" the following: "And in counties containing a city with a population of not less than 77,000 and not more than 78,000 inhabitants."

Signed—Harrison, McGill, Pool.

(3)

Amend Senate bill No. 256 by inserting in line 3 of the caption between the figures "42,000" and the word "according" the following: "And in counties containing a city of a population of not less than 77,000 and not more than 78,000." and by striking out all after the word "law" in the third line from the bottom of the page down to and including the word "annum" in the last line.

Signed—Harman, Harrison.

The amendments were severally adopted.

Mr. Giles offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend Senate bill No. 256 by striking out "35,000" wherever it appears in the bill and inserting in lieu thereof "34,000."

Signed—Giles, Williams of Travis.

The amendment was adopted.

SENATE BILL NO. 92 ON THIRD
READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its third reading and final passage,

S. B. No. 72, A bill to be entitled "An Act making it lawful for the commissioners court of Clay, Archer, Baylor and Young counties to pay out of the general fund of such counties bounties for the destruction of predatory animals; providing that on petition of two hundred freeholders, the commissioners court of such county may provide amount of bounty and method of proof to entitle claimant to obtain such bounty and prescribing manner of payment, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read third time.

On motion of Mr. Sherrill, the bill was laid on the table subject to call.

SENATE BILL NO. 296 ON SECOND READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to third reading,

S. B. No. 296, A bill to be entitled "An Act to provide that in the event there should be awarded to the State of Texas by the final decree of the United States Supreme Court at Washington, D. C., in its final judgment in the suit of the State of Oklahoma against the State of Texas, the United States, intervenor, any area of land along the 100th degree west longitude adjacent to the east side of the Panhandle of Texas and the west side of the State of Oklahoma, such area shall, upon the happening of that event, be and become a portion, part and parcel of and incorporated into the several counties of the State of Texas adjacent thereto for all governmental purposes by the extension of the north and south boundary lines of same east to the true 100th degree of west longitude as may be fixed by said court; to withhold said area for final disposition by future legislation; to provide for the ascertainment of the character of the land and improvements thereon and the kind and character and status of all claims of right and title thereto; to provide for one claiming a right therein to proceed to establish such right, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Young offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend Senate bill No. 296, page 2, line 40, by striking out all beginning with word "provided" down to and including all of line 5, on page 3.

The amendment was adopted.

Senate bill No. 296 was then passed to third reading.

SENATE BILL NO. 296 ON THIRD READING.

HOUSE BILL NO. 454 ON SECOND READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 454, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Article 878 of the 1925 Penal Code, amended by House bill No. 71, Chapter 222, page 326, Regular Session of the Fortieth Legislature, so as to change the dividing line between the north and south hunting zones of this State and providing for which portion of the State shall be in each zone; amending Section 1, Article 879, of House bill No. 161, Chapter 215, page 316, Regular Session of the Fortieth Legislature, so as to define the open season on doves in the north zone and south zone, excepting certain counties therefrom."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Graves of Erath offered the following amendments to the bill:

(1)

Amend House bill No. 454 by adding after the word "year" in line 22 on page 2 the following: "provided, however, that it shall be unlawful to hunt, take or kill wild mourning doves, except during the period from September 15 to November 15 of each year in Grayson and Collin."

(2)

Amend House bill No. 454 by omitting the following counties: Mitchell, Nolan and Fisher.

(3)

Amend House bill No. 454, Sec. 2, line 32, by adding after the word "Grimes" the words, "Goliad, Victoria, Calhoun, Polk, Fayette, Brazos, Washington."

The amendments were severally adopted.

Mr. Heaton offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill 454 by adding the word "Panola" in Article 879 after the word "Brazos."

The amendment was adopted.

House bill No. 454 was then passed to engrossment.

SENATE BILL NO. 355 ON THIRD READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its third reading and final passage, S. B. No. 355, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Section 25 of Chapter 122 of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-ninth Legislature, relating to tick eradication among live stock, so as to include Cherokee, Rusk, Panola and Nacogdoches counties in that territory in which systematic tick eradication work is carried on and provided for, the purpose of this act being to add said counties to that territory described in said act as being west of the Brazos river and north and west of a line described in the act," etc.

The bill was read third time.

Mr. Heaton offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend the bill by striking out the word "Panola" wherever it appears in the bill.

The amendment was lost.

EXPRESSING APPRECIATION TO MR. GRAHAM

Mr. Petsch offered the following resolution:

Whereas, The Honorable H. J. Graham, of Boerne, Kendall county, Texas, did heretofore erect a monument in Boerne, county seat of Kendall county, dedicated to those who made the supreme sacrifice in the late World War and subscribed thereon the names of every person from Kendall county who died in the service of his country in such contest; and

Whereas, Mr. Graham has thereby set an example wherein patriotic citizens may assist in preserving the names and memory of those who gave their lives for those principles which sought to make the world safe for democracy; and

Whereas, Such patriotic service as rendered by Mr. Graham is worthy of the attention of all liberty-loving citizens and of the Legislature of the State of Texas; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of Texas express its appreciation to Mr. Graham for his chivalrous act and his patriotic and worth-while citizenship; and that to accomplish such purpose a copy of this resolution, properly attested, be transmitted to Mr. Graham, and that a page be set aside in the Journal of both branches to exclusively evidence the resolution, and that the adjournment of the bodies on the day of the adoption of this resolution in the two houses be, respectively, in memory of said act.

The resolution was read second time and was adopted.
